

Brigadier General (Prof.) Hesham Yusuf Ali

Ear, Nose & Throat Consultant

Professional Qualifications:

- Fellowship in ENT from the Royal College of Surgeons in Edinburg.
- Fellowship King Faisal Specialist Hospital & RC, KSA.
- Worked as Ear, Nose and Throat a consultant and head of department at Bahrain Royal Medical Services.
- Medical doctor degree from Arabian Gulf University.
- Bachelor of Basic Medical Sciences-Arabian Gulf University.
- Member of the American Academy of Otolaryngology and head & neck surgery.
- Member of the International Sialendoscopy Society.

Specialized in:

- Managing adenotonsillitis and otitis media via state of art technologies.
- Managing turbinate hypertrophy under local anesthesia and endoscopically.
- Traditional and endoscopic management of deviated nasal septum.
- Diagnosis and management of allergic rhinitis via skin testing and immunotherapy.
- Management of sinusitis and nasal polyps medically and via endoscopic and balloon dilation.
- Managing blocked nasolacrimal system endoscopically.
- Managing nasal bone fractures and cosmetic reconstruction of the nose (Rhinoplasty).
- Diagnosis and management of snoring and obstructive sleep apnea.
- Management of migraine and tension headache medically, and additionally via botox injection and sphenopalatine ganglion block.
- Management of hoarseness and voice disorders via endoscopic and microscopic approaches and through utilization of laser.
- Management of causes of salivary gland obstruction and stones via utilization of sialendoscopes.
- Diagnosis and management of hearing impairment and dizziness disorder.
- Cosmetic facial procedures like botox, fillers and threads.